RALEIGH, N. C., Nov. 25 .- Special .-

Judge Schenck, who said last week that the lease of the North Carolina railroad to the Southern was unconstitutional, has been severely criticised by the press.

It is said that had he still continued to be the afterney for the Southern he would never have given this as his opinion. He comes out in a card, and denies the charge, and accuses the Southern railroad of fraud. He contends he is "battling for the rights of the people, and points out to them the remedy to prevent the evil designs." If he is not prevent the evil designs." If he is not correct in his statement, he rays he is ready to be corrected.

There was rather a little scene in the First Saptist church yesterday, by the entrance of a nicely-dressed negro man, who, it is said, is from Richmond, and who took his seat in the hody of the church. An usher went to him, and told him he was giad to have him come to the church, and that one of the galleries was given to the colored people. He said he would stay where he was. Another, and still another usher went to him, and finally he was told he must leave; still he placidly replied, I will sty where I am. A caucus of ushers was being held at the entrance when he walked out, and was so very insolent he was shown the gate. It is helieved that he was put up to this as a test.

The Bishop said: "The claims of the world are large, and my advisers, for the sake of the church at large, think it best you should go. You have done your duty in the community in which you have been, and you cannot live long. Are you not willing, for the sake of the church, to pass your days elsewhere."

Dr. Starr said: "I simply boid the Bishop that I was built for work, and that I expected to be worked until I dropped dead. I want to drop dead on the field of battle."

It is reared that the condition of the Pope's health will necessitate another postponement of the expected Consistory. DUBLAN, Nov. 25.—Cardinal Logu, Archbishop of Armagh and Primate of Rome, has issued a pastoral letter, in which he declares that the Pope hever stood in greater need of the consolation and support of the Irish people than now.

The Cardinal censures the Bratish Ambassador to Italy, Sir F. Clarford, who, he says, is also the representative of Ireland for having beflagged the British Embassy at Rome during the recent demonstrations in the Italian capital, which sought to outrage and insult the head of the Church.

ITALIAN FINANCES. The Government Announces Its Intentior

He was about the last of the Washington erowd to go back. I asked him if he was going out of the business now. He replied he was about ruined, but what he would do or what he would not do he really could not tell.

It is difficult to sum up the opinions expressed here to-night of the Heath verdict. It was both a surprise and an "I told you so." Lawyer Marbury says all he can say is that the court fixed the matter, and apparently he thinks it the best that could be done. He declined to say whether his action in the matter was in the nature of a compromise or not, or whether his part was owing to instructions from the Governor, or from Judge Chichester's counsel.

Adge Chichester evidently decided consciencitiously. He further declares that he will break up gambling in Alexandria county. He will prosecute and drive the gamblers out.

CAPTAIN WEBSTER'S OPINION.

Police Captain Webster would have it thought that little else thon such a flasco could be expected from the Governor's plan of proceeding in this matter, and that more harm than good is the outcome of it all. The county constables, he believes, could have done better even, without the Governor's aid, but his Excellency having no confidence in any of them or those up this way, and catering to the dictates of Washingtonians, has simto Limit Expenses to Necessities.
ROME, Nov. 25.—in the Chamber of Deputies to-day Signor Sonnino, Minisor those up this way, and catering to the dictates of Washingtonians, has sim-ply played his card and lost. There is some interest centered in the outcome of Nelson and Foster's case, to ter of the Treasury, announced that a balanced budget would be obtained.

He stated that the Government intended to continue to limit its expenses to necessities, and to persevere in its programme excluding the creation of new debt. The present depression of the markets, he added, had affected the international situation, but would have no effect upon the budget, the Italian treasury not needng to enter into any financial opera-

Signor Sannino's statement made a generally good impression.

Dumas Not Dead,

PARIS, Nov. 25.—A report, circulated early this morning, that M. Alexander Dumas, the distinguished author, was dead, was premature. He is suffering from abscess on the brain, and is in a comatose condition. His physicians have no hope of his recovery, and his relatives have been summoned to his bedside.

It was announced by Mr. Justice Brown in disposing of the case of George Goode, a letter carrier in Boston, convicted of abstracting a letter from the Roxbury branch, of that city, and sentenced to the penitentiary for three years. From that sentence an appeal was taken to the Supreme Court of the United States, on The grounds (I) that a decoy letter, with Two Men Scalded to death.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 25.—A plug blew out of the head of the mud valve at the electric light plant last night, frightfully scalding six tramps who were sleeping just above the boilers.

Two died in terrible agony a few hours after the accident occurred, and a third will likely die. The other three are badly but not fatally injured.

ROME. Nov. 25.—Heavy snow-storms prevail throughout the provinces of Piedmont and Ligueria. Italiway traffic is completely blocked and trains are embedded in huge snow drifts.

tural Department has in course of preparation an enormous map of the public roads of the entire State. It will show the condition of roads paved and macadamized, and the construction and repair of them all. There has for a long time been much complaint of the price charged for gashere, and its inferior character. Now the company has a well-equipped plant, and will improve the quality of the gas, at the same time reducing the price. On Saturday afternoon Mr. J. E. Bonner was murdered in iseaufort, and robbed of everything in his pockets. He was a member of one of the oldest and most prominent families in that section. A coroner's jury was summoned from Washington, N. C.

A Desperado Killed.

RALEIGH, N. C., Nov. 25.—Near Goldsboro yesterday afternoon an escaped prisoner from Wayne county jall named Bunn was killed by Sheriff Scott.

The Sheriff's people had been hunting Bunn several weeks. The Sheriff was returning from church in the country when he met Bunn in a road cart with his wife. The Sheriff called to him to surrender. Bunn made no reply, but from the bottom of the cart drew a double-barrelled gun, which he levelled at the Sheriff. Before he could fire the Sheriff fired three times in rapid succession.

Bunn fell from the cart dead. One hall took effect at the base of the soine. Bunn's wife was uninjured. The sentiment is that the Sheriff was justified. Bunn was known as a desperate man.

GLASGOW, Nov. 25.—The Clyde Engineering firms met in this city to-day and confirmed the agreement to federate with the Belfast, Tyne, and Barrow firms against the demand of their employes. This action will probably result in a lengthening of the strike.
